Today is my big brother's birthday. He is having a birthday party.

Mom bought funny hats and noise makers. She bought balloons and streamers.

My big brother doesn't need all this stuff.

Mom bought him a birthday cake with candles.

His friends will eat it all up.
There won't be any for me.

Mom bought a piñata full of candy. It looks like a chicken.

The big kids will break it with the piñata stick. They will grab all the candy.

Mom has lots of games planned for my brother's friends to play at his birthday party.

They won't let me play.

They will tell me I'm too little.

After lunch, all his friends come over to our house. They bring presents for my big brother.

They don't bring me anything.

They make a lot of noise, laughing and playing. I don't feel like laughing and playing.
